ProSocial Community Guidelines

Private Information

We suggest not sharing private information (social security numbers, passports, passwords, financial information or unlisted contact information, such as phone numbers, email addresses and home/work addresses) with anyone during your outings. We do suggest communicating through ProSocial once you have friends in your ProSocial circle.

Harassment

Do not engage, or encourage others to engage, in any targeted abuse or harassment against any other user. Reports of stalking, threats, bullying or intimidation are taken very seriously.

Violence and Physical Harm

During an outing, if you are reported for violence or threats of any kind, you will be banned from ProSocial.

Hate Speech

If during an outing a person promotes, advocates for, or condones racism, bigotry, hatred, or violence against individuals or groups based on factors like (but not limited to) race, ethnicity, religious affiliation, disability, gender, age, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity or pollical affiliation will be banned from future outings.

Promotion or Solicitation

If you go on a ProSocial outing and soliciting other users trying to sell them goods and services, your account will be suspended. If you are found to break this rule twice, we have the right to delete your account.

Prostitution and Trafficking

Promoting or advocating for commercial sexual services, human trafficking or other non-consensual sexual acts is strictly prohibited and will result in your account being banned.

Scamming

ProSocial will not tolerate fraud. Anyone attempting to get other users' private information for fraudulent or illegal activity will be banned. Any user caught sharing their own financial account information (PayPal, Venmo, etc.) for the purpose of receiving money from other users may also be banned.

Impersonation

Anyone caught impersonating or otherwise misrepresenting their affiliation, connection or association with any person or entity will be banned.

You must be 18 years of age or older to use ProSocial. If a minor is suspected of opening an account and going on an outing, the account will be deleted.
